

INVITATION for a free WEBINAR
On Wednesday July 8, 19:00-19:45 (CET)
Non-inflammatory alopecia: A clinical case in a dog

Dear colleagues,

Today we would like to invite you to our next webinar of the English-language online series on the topic "Non-inflammatory alopecia: A clinical case in a dog".

In this Webinar, we will discuss the problem-oriented approach (POA) of a clinical case of non-inflammatory alopecia. Which differential diagnoses must be considered and which are the test needed to arrive in the diagnosis of the condition. Come to our Webinar and discover the disease of our patient.
